20 On June 17, 2024, the Court signed a stipulated order modifying defendant's conditions
21 of pretrial release to allow him to be away from his residence for a construction job in Oakhurst,
22 CA. ECF 529. Specifically, the order allowed him to leave his residence on Mondays at 5:00
23 a.m. and return every Friday before 11 p.m. Originally, the job was expected to end by 24 September 10, 2024. However, the job is taking longer than expected. Accordingly, the parties
25 request that the Court further modify its June 17, 2024, Order to extend until September 30,
26 2024, as follows: The United States of America through its undersigned counsel, DAVID
27 SPENCER, Assistant United States Attorney, together with counsel for defendant ROSARIO
28 ZAMORA-ROJO, Shari Rusk, Esq., hereby agree to the following:

The defendant is allowed to be away from his residence for a construction job in Oakhurst, CA. He will leave his residence on Monday June 17, 2024 at 4:30 a.m. and return every Friday before 11 p.m. He will stay at 2272 CA 49, Mariposa, CA while he is working. Mr. Rojo's work site is 40027 hwy 49, Oakhurst, CA, 93643. Mr. Rojo must maintain contact with his assigned Pretrial Services Officer at all times. His curfew will still be in effect on weekends when he is home. Mr. Rojo is allowed to be away from his residence Monday at 5:00 AM through Friday at 11:00 PM, for work purposes only, while staying at an AIRBNB in Oakhurst, California. Mr. Zamora-Rojo must complete this work by September 30, 2024.
